

Cancellation Policy, Services & Disclaimers

You must be 18 years or older to request online or in-person sessions, services, and readings.

Sessions are done via ZOOM at scheduled times. If you have a scheduled appointment and need to cancel / reschedule our time, kindly provide me with at least 24 hours advanced notice.

In the event of late or missed sessions, the full session fee will be charged. Once our sessions have begun, your purchase is non-refundable. Should you need to cancel prior to having begun our sessions, am happy to refund 100%.

By purchasing and/or engaging in any services, you understand that any sessions, services and readings are intended to offer a thought process into a person's life and are not guaranteed. These sessions, services and readings do not in any way replace or constitute health, legal, financial, or professional advice. Information provided on this site is not intended to be a replacement for consultation with a healthcare professional. I do not claim to heal or bring about recovery from any illness, nor do I diagnose or recommend treatment. If you have health concerns, please contact your healthcare provider.

When you request any services, understand and agree that you are using the service at your own risk and that all final decisions you make regarding your life are your sole responsibility.

Sessions are strictly confidential. Your personal information will never be shared with anyone.

Download this document, sign and return via bimberlynsoulworks@gmail.com prior to your scheduled session.

~~~~~

---

Printed Name

---

Date

---

Signature